

The Black Lamb

8 1 2

Chapter 1 by Derek

Me and my wonderful family made one of our most important decisions of our life. After much thought me and my wife finally wanted to settle down in a wholesome place. That week, I think on a Thursday, we packed our bags and started our new life on my uncles farm.

Our family, my wife Julia, my two daughters Syndi and Kristy, and my son Ethan, loved the place right when we got there. The highlight of the whole place was the black lamb. After about two months of living there, a strange thing started happening to the black lamb. When i was feeding the animals I couldn't find the black lamb. I went to the barn and couldn't believe my eyes.

Chapter 2 by Derek

The lamb was standing still with huge horns sticking out of his head and had staring black eyes, and the only movement or sound he made was the loud breathing. I called a priest to see what was wrong with him and after two hours he finally got here he right away was startled and told me to kill the lamb immediately.
